GENERAL RULES

- 1. The debate can be delivered either in Hindi or English.
- The topics for the debate at the Preliminary, zonal and the final round are to be the same.
- Participants would not be allowed to refer to any pre-prepared notes/sheets.
- Each contestant would be given a maximum time limit of 4+1 minutes, during which they have to complete their narrative; after which they would be timed out and it would call for negative marking.
- 5 Time starts as soon as the participant occupies the lectern/dais.
- A bell will be rung by the time-keeper at the end of 4 minutes, to indicate that only one minute is left, for the participant to wind up.
- 7. The participants would be judged on their clarity of content, proficiency in the given language, diction, analytical skills, time -precision and concept clarity, brevity and nimbleness in dealing with the interjection questions.
- Two interjections per contestant would be permitted to the audience at the end of each individual debate for each contestant.
- 9 The interjectors need to raise their hands, and the choice would be usually made by the compere/moderator based on the first visible basis.
- 10. The compere's decision regarding choice of interjector would be final.
- 11. Only one question would be allowed to one interjector.
- No participant would be allowed to interject a fellow participant.
- In case of no interjections coming to an individual, two of the three judges are to put forward an interjection each to that participant
- The judges' decision will be final.
- 15. All the participants are to be briefed about the rules before the beginning of the contest. No queries will be entertained after the contest.
