D.O. No. 2-40/2018-NFSM

Dated: 28th December 2022

Respected Sir/Madam

As you are aware, the United Nations has declared the year 2023 as the International Year of Millets (IYM). The year 2023 will be extensively used to explore and promote the value and numerous benefits of millets for farmers, consumers and the planet. The Government of India is at the forefront of celebrating the IYM 2023 through campaigns, events, programs and festivals aimed at making IYM 2023 a 'People's Movement'.

The Opening Ceremony for IYM was organized by FAO at its Headquarter in Rome, Italy on 6th December, 2022 held both in-person and online mode was attended by numerous stakeholders across the global millets value chain including representation from Ministry of Agriculture & Farmers Welfare, Government of India. The logo for International Year of Millets 2023 has been launched in this ceremony.

Therefore, it is requested to kindly use this logo for all your future branding and communications regarding IYM 2023 or millets. The link for open file of the logo for IYM along with the guidelines released by FAO for its usage can be accessed with the links added below:
