Provision of Leave Rules in respect of
Ex-servicemen working in DRDO

A point was raised in the Screening Committee meeting of JCM-III Level (DRDO) Council held on 07 Dec 2015 at CFES, Deit that a number of ex-servicemen have been employed in DRDO lab/establishments but they are not being allowed to avail leave encashment upto 300 days though their service in DRDO is counted as fresh appointment and as a result of this, the number of days of EL encashed by them in their past service is being deducted at the time of encashment on their retirement in the new/fresh service in DRDO.

2. The issue was taken up with DOP&T through D(R&D) who have forwarded the following clarification on the matter -

It is stated that any leave encashed by ex-servicemen at the time of their retirement from defence establishments may not be counted towards the total limit of three hundred days for leave encashment. They may be treated as having entered Government service for the first time on the date of their re-employment as per Rule-34.

3. It is requested to bring the contents of this letter to the notice of all concerned. It is also requested to issue directions to the concerned officials to process the cases of ex-servicemen working in your lab/establishment accordingly.
